

" The Symphony of Words"

"In words lies the essence of life hidden,

A celebration adorned merely with a bouquet of words,

Unspoken words express the truth of life.

In these are hidden the rituals and secrets of existence,

The 'Celebrations of Life' always created by their strength.

Desire bears the burden, and success wears the crown,

Even the unspoken draw lines, leaving lessons behind.

Grievances and complaints vanish, thanks to these words,

The essence of life lies in the present joy,

We are Bond from birth to death by letters,

Magical two and a half letters of love, and fortune too.

Words are... which connect heart to heart,

Define lovers and their love,

Only words know the significance of relationships,

Words are the essence of emotions in languages.

Words, too, speak volumes as puzzles,

Don't take lightly the "Power of Words."

*In them are challenges of war and scolding too,
Sometimes, they heal the pain like a Balm.
When words are set to tune, they become sweet songs,
Without the nine emotions, letters remain bland,
Don't underestimate their power lightly.*

*In words is hidden the form of God,
Crafted are the Gita, Ramayana, Quran, Bible,
They pray, greet, and bless,
Life's foundation, the root of creation.*

*Don't take it lightly, a treasure of Nectar,
Shows highs and lows, gives direction to thoughts,
Words alone fill colors in resolutions,
Not flowers, but shower words every day,
Love and enjoy .. its unique, wonderful world."*
